

Resources to Help You During COVID-19

Community Resources

For assistance with community resources, the following organizations can assist you:

- + Community Economic Development Center: Call 508-979-4684 or email cedcfamilia@gmail.com
- + Family Resource Center: Call 508-994-4521
- + Family Support Hotline: Call 508-997-4515
- + Immigrants Assistance Center: Call 508-996-8113
- + People Acting in Community Endeavors (PACE): Call 508-999-9920 or email help@paceinfo.org

Food Resources

If you are in need of food, sign up with Southcoast Community Response Corps to assist with your meal delivery and grocery needs through their website <https://www.southcoastcrc.org/>.

If you are an elderly person in need of support or food, please contact Coastline Elderly Services at 508-999-6400 or Bristol Elder Services at 508-675-2101.

Housing Information

If your income has been affected by COVID-19 and you're worried about paying your rent or struggling financially, the following organizations can assist you.

- + Citizens for Citizens: 508-676-7397 or visit <http://cfcinc.org/programs/fuel-assistance-program/> for more information
- + PACE: 508-999-9920 or visit <http://paceinfo.org/programs-2/fuel-assistance-program/> for more information
- + United Way of Greater New Bedford: To apply for financial assistance to meet housing, childcare and other basic needs visit <https://unitedwayofgnb.org/help-united/>

Safety Concerns and Support

If you have concerns about your safety or the safety of someone you care about, reach out for information and support.

Domestic Violence:

- + Children's Advocacy Center: 508-235-9800
- + Emergency Shelter Hotline: 617-573-1106
- + National Domestic Violence Hotline: 800-799-7233
- + SafeLink: 877-785-2020
- + Women's Center: 508-999-6636